Ivoclar Vivadent sponsors LieGames 2011

The international dental manufacturer Ivoclar Vivadent has signed on as a Gold Sponsor of the LieGames 2011. For the company, the Games of the Small States of Europe represent an ideal platform which allows participants to establish contacts on an international level. Ivoclar Vivadent believes that the LieGames 2011 will help promote Liechtenstein as a tourist destination and business location in a very pleasant way.

Ivoclar Vivadent, whose corporate headquarters are located in Schaan, Liechtenstein, is one of the leading dental manufacturers worldwide. A comprehensive range of products and systems for dentists and dental technicians as well as intensive research and development and a clear commitment to further education and training form the basis for the company's success.
